NO SOLID SOUTH FOR DEMOCRATS

North Carolina Comes Into the Republican Fold.

SO THE CHAIRMAN OF THE STATE TELEGRAPHS.

Democrats Concede the Election of the Fusion Congressmen Which Strengthens the Claim of Republicans—Changes From the First Reports Are Trifling.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The chairman of the state central committee of North Carolina telegraphs that his state has gone republican. The democrats conceded the election of fusion congressmen in all the districts save the Second, Third and Sixth. It is also claimed the fusionists have elected their state ticket and have secured a majority in the senate and perhaps in the house. The official canvass of the votes will be made to-day in each county and this alone will show the complexion of the legislature. The negro vote proved the balance of power.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The republicans will control the next house. Senator Faulkner concedes to them the organization. The only question is as to how far they will have control on party questions. Of the senators who hold over or have been elected already there are thirty-three democrats, twenty republicans and five independents, the latter being Allen, Kyle and Peffer, populists, and Stewart and Jones, silver republicans. Five democrats will be elected from Arkansas, South Carolina, Texas, Alabama and Georgia, making a total of thirty-eight sure democrats. The republicans will elect two senators from Michigan, two from Montana, two from Wyoming and one each from West Virginia, New Hampshire, Illinois, Oregon, Maine, Delaware, Massachusetts, Nebraska, Kansas, New Jersey, South Dakota, Idaho, Minnesota, Colorado, California and Washington, twenty-two in all, making their total sure in the senate, free from all alliances, forty-two votes. Tennessee and North Carolina are in doubt. The former has one senator and the latter two. The indications all favor the certain election of the fusion ticket in North Carolina. This means one populist and one republican senator. Assuming that the western Tennessee democrats elect a senator of that party to succeed Harris, the senate would stand forty-three republicans, thirty-nine democrats and six independents. In this estimate Irby and Tillman of South Carolina are classed as democrats, though they would often affiliate with the full-fledged populists. The situation summed up seems likely to be 43 republican, assisted by Jones, Stewart, Peffer and the North Carolina populists, making a total of 47, or a majority of 6 over the combined forces of the 39 democrats and 2 democratic populists.

The next senate will be divided among the three political parties as follows:

Totals.....	356	247	109

The following are the latest returns from the states named:

New York.
NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—As the returns flow in Mr. Morton's plurality over Hill increases. At midnight last night the figures show him to have about 10,990 more than Tuesday night, making his total plurality upward of 153,000. The vote on the state ticket in this city shows Hill's plurality 2,550. There is no material change reported on the congressional delegation from the ten districts of the city. It still stands five republicans to five democrats. There has been no material change on the vote for mayor or judge of the supreme court. Col. Strong, republican, has about 43,000 over Hugh J. Grant, the Tammany candidate. That of Mr. Goff for Recorder is increased so as to give him a plurality of upwards of 53,000. The board of aldermen stands 16 Tammany democrats to 14 republicans. A count of the vote cast for and against the proposed amendments to the constitution indicates all the propositions are carried in this city. At present the majority for them is 12,000, with 490 districts missing.

Kansas.
TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 8.—It will undoubtedly be several days before accurate and complete returns from the state of Kansas will be received. From returns and estimates received the total vote is estimated at 290,000, divided as follows: Merrell, republican, for governor, 146,000; Lowell, populist, 114,000; Overmeyer, democrat, 24,000; Pickering, prohibition, 6,000. Ninety-one members of the legislature have been elected by the republicans and thirty-four by the populists and democrats. On joint ballot in the election of a United States senator the republicans will have a majority of forty-seven over both populists and democrats. As far as heard from the vote is largely against the woman suffrage amendment, which probably lost by a large majority.

Missouri.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 8.—From the latest official returns received from thirty-five counties in Missouri, republican gains of 16,000 are shown, and the election of their entire state ticket by a plurality of at least 10,000 is assured. The republicans have carried nine of the fifteen congressmen. "Silver Dick" Bland, "Farmer" Hatch, and Dockery have been defeated. The lower house of the legislature is republican, but the democrats, who have a majority in the senate, will be able to carry things on a joint ballot. Nothing definite can be learned, however, as to what their majority is until complete official returns have been received.

New England.
BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 8.—All the New England returns show republican gains. New Hampshire elects both republican congressmen. Busiel will have nearly 12,000 plurality. The legislature is largely republican. Greenhalge's plurality in Massachusetts is nearly 70,000. All of the republican candidates for congress were chosen except in the Ninth. The legislature will be republican. Boston complete: Greenhalge, 29,998; Russell, 33,023. Rhode Island elects both republican congressmen. Complete returns from all but seventeen towns out of 168 in Connecticut show that Coffin, the republican candidate for governor, is elected by 15,074 plurality. In all four of the congressional districts republican candidates are elected.

Illinois.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 8.—The republicans Tuesday elected nineteen of the twenty-two congressmen and will have a majority of seven in the state senate and thirty-seven in the house, making a joint majority of forty-four on a ballot for United States senator. The returns indicate that the republicans have elected eighteen of twenty-six senators chosen Tuesday. These will hold over until 1898 and it will be almost impossible under any circumstances for the democrats to obtain control of the general assembly in 1896, which will result in the election of a republican United States senator to succeed John M. Palmer.

Tennessee.
NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 8.—Chairman Carroll of the democratic state committee says he does not concede the election of Evans, republican, for governor, and insists that Turney will have nearly 3,000 over Evans. The republican state committee confidently claims the election of Evans, republican, by not less than 7,000. It looks now as if the official count will be required to settle the question. The legislature is democratic in both houses. This gives democrats control

In both houses and insures election of United States senator.

Nebraska.
OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 8.—Returns from forty-two counties for governor give Majors, republican, 69,238; Holcomb, fusions, 68,282. There are forty-six counties to hear from. The fusion candidate will, in all probability, have a plurality of from 2,000 to 7,000. On the balance of the state republican ticket the whole goes republican. The returns on the legislature are quite incomplete, but the republicans claim it. The congressional delegation is republican. The vote is 10 per cent heavier than in former years.

West Virginia.
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 8.—With the legislature having 15 republican majority on joint ballot, the election of Stephen B. Elkins to succeed J. N. Camden as United States senator is conceded generally. The republicans are claiming Dayton's election by 2,000, but Senator Faulkner says he does not concede Wilson's defeat and will not do so until the official returns are in.

Indiana.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 8.—Returns are slow, but republicans feel assured that seventy counties out of ninety-two have elected republican county tickets and given a plurality for William D. Owen, R., for secretary of state over William R. Meyers, democrat. The republicans have made a sweep of the legislative ticket. Out of twenty-five senators republicans have elected twenty, which with the eleven hold-overs make the senate thirty-one republicans and nineteen democrats.

Louisiana.
NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 8.—Although complete returns are even yet not received, there is no doubt that each of the six democratic congressional nominees in Louisiana has been elected by more than 5,000 majority. The republicans are gathering material on which to have contests of the First, Second and Third districts. The democratic state majority is 30,000.

Minnesota.
ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 8.—The fullest reports obtainable with some counties conservatively estimated, give Nelson, republican, for governor, 123,038; Becker, democrat, 46,214; Owen, populist, 70,473. Nelson's plurality, 52,539. Nelson's majority over both Becker and Owen is 6,335. However, later official reports will undoubtedly reduce this figure.

Washington.
SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 8.—Returns from over one half the state of Washington show that the republicans pluralities will be more than 15,000. The legislature is republican in both branches and on joint ballot by at least twenty-five. Both republican congressmen are elected.

Wyoming.
CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 8.—Republicans elect F. W. Mondell to congress by 3,000 plurality and the rest of the state ticket by a plurality of from 1,800 to 2,500. Republicans will have forty-four members of legislature out of fifty-five and possibly three or four more. Will elect two United States senators.

New Mexico.
SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 8.—Eleven counties out of eighteen give T. B. Catron, republican for delegate to congress, 2,100 majority. Eight remaining counties may cut this down to 1,300 majority. The legislative assembly is close, with chances of a small republican majority.

Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 8.—Only one congressman is elected in Pennsylvania by the democrats, Erdman, from the Ninth district, by a majority of 910. Later returns on the state do not reduce Tuesday night's estimate of a majority of at least 250,000 for the republican ticket.

Michigan. DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 8.—The republican state ticket, based on returns from forty counties, give a plurality of 76,085. Every republican candidate for congress is elected by more than 2,000, thus giving twelve republicans at Washington. The next legislature is republican and will elect two republican senators. |

South Dakota.
SIOUX CITY, Iowa, Nov. 8.—Returns from South Dakota last night show that populists are sure of only 21 of 126 members of the legislature. The total vote in the state is estimated at 70,000. Gov. Sheldon places his plurality at 18,000 against 10,000 in 1892.

Nevada.
RENO, Nev., Nov. 8.—Forty-nine precincts in a total of 161 precincts in the state of Nevada give: For governor, Cleveland, republican, 1,330; Jones, silver, 2,165. For congress, Bartine, republican, 1,033; Newlands, silver, 1,875. Jones and Newlands are probably elected.

Colorado.
DENVER, Colo., Nov. 8.—The latest estimates give the republicans 15,000 to 20,000 plurality on the head of the state ticket. The republicans have fifty-four members of the legislature, populists and democrats forty-three, and three are doubtful.

Montana.
HELENA, Mont., Nov. 8.—The republicans claim a majority on joint ballot in the legislature, thus electing two United States senators. Populists made great gains. Helena's majority for state capital will be probably 1,500.

Texas.
AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 8.—All returns received up to last night indicate the vote of this state to be about 415,000, divided as follows: Democrats, 200,000; populists, 135,000; republicans, 60,000; Lily Whites, 5,000; prohibitions, 15,000.

South Carolina.
COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 8.—The total vote for Evans, democrat, candidate for governor, almost completed is 31,453, and for populist independent 17,175. The populists intend to contest the election on account of alleged frauds.

Mississippi.
JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 8.—From best estimates obtainable Allen, Kyle, Catchings, Williams, and Spencer are elected to congress by from 5,000 to 8,000; Money by 2,000 and Denny by 1,000. All are democrats. No official returns from any district yet.

Maryland.
BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 8.—The republican state committee announces that in addition to the Third and Fourth congressional districts it will contest the election of J. W. Miles in the First district on the ground of bribery and repeating all along the eastern shore.

California.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 8.—Returns coming in slowly, but reports last night indicate the election of seven republican congressmen. Budd, democrat, is elected governor by good plurality, and Sutro, populist, and an A. P. A., is elected mayor of San Francisco by immense majority over three other candidates.

Delaware.
WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 8.—The republicans elect the governor and congressmen and local tickets in the counties. The next legislature will stand: Senate, 5 democrats; 4 republicans; house, 14 democrats; 7 democrats. On joint ballot, 18 republicans, 12 democrats. This insures a republican successor to United States Senator Higgins.

Virginia.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Republicans claim the election of Robert J. Walker of Hawkinstown, republican, in the Seventh Virginia and many democrats in his district concede it. The delegation stands probably nine democrats, one republican.

Wisconsin.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 8.—The entire republican state ticket is elected by a plurality which will run nearly to 60,000, and the entire congressional delegation from the state; the state senate and the legislature are republican.

Alabama.
MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 8.—This state has returned nine democratic congressmen. The contests in the Fourth, Fifth, Seventh and Ninth districts are close and the opposition to democracy claims victory in each.

North Dakota.
BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 8.—Partial returns from twenty counties show Johnson, republican, for congress, has a majority over both the democrat and populist candidates. The legislature is republican.

Ohio.
COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 8.—Up to 2 o'clock last night the returns show the election of nineteen republican and two democratic congressmen, a republican gain of nine.

New Jersey.
TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 8.—On joint ballot the legislature will probably stand: Republicans, 52; democrats, 24. The republicans elect congressman in all but the Seventh district.

Iowa.
DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 8.—The latest returns give republicans a plurality of 80,000. They have all the congressmen, including Curtis, in the Second.

Arkansas.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 8.—Senator Jones, congressman-Elect McRae, and Terry say the majority for the democratic congressional candidates will be about 25,000.

Florida.
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 8.—Democrats elect every congressman in Florida. The vote was light. No republican nominations were made.

Georgia.
ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 8.—Democrats elect eleven congressmen from this state. There may be contests.

IRON FIRM IN TROUBLE.

Moorehead & McClean of Pittsburg Unable to Meet a Note for $150,000.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 8.—When the iron firm of Moorehead & McClean failed three years ago M. K. Moorehead indorsed a note for $150,000, which was discounted by Pittsburg banks, the mill by this means being enabled to continue operations. The note has gone to protest and the creditors refuse to grant an extension of time. George S. Griscom, president of the company, says the business depression of the last two years is the cause of the trouble. The banks have not decided as yet what course to pursue.

Steamship on Fire.

PORT JEFFERSON, N. Y., Nov. 8.—What appears to be a steamer is burning out in Long Island sound off this harbor.

DEATH COMES TO SIX.

Bad Wreck on the Baltimore & Ohio in Pennsylvania.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 8.—Train No. 5, Baltimore and Ohio limited, coming west, ran into the first section of No. 64, a fast cattle train, at Rosensteel siding, two miles east of Rockwood, at 5:40 last evening. Five men were killed in the collision and several others badly hurt. The killed: BUSH, HENRY, engineer of No. 5. BROWNING, —, engineer of No. 64. MCCARTY, PATRICK, fireman of No. 5. MANNING, —, fireman of No. 64. PIERCE, DE GRANGE, mail clerk.

The injured: LIPPINCOTT, —, mail clerk; badly hurt, though not fatally.

The railroad officials say no passengers were hurt. The meeting place for the trains was Pine Grove, four or five miles east of the place of the collision. There the passenger should have taken the siding for the freight. The mail car was reduced to kindling wood. Only the heavy vestibules of the passenger cars saved them from a similar fate. Fully a dozen cattle cars were piled up in the wreck, killing and maiming many of the dumb brutes.

De Grange, Pierce and Lippincott were jammed between the cars and the two unknown clerks were found dead under the debris. Conductor Ward was not hurt, as at first reported. Bush was the oldest engineer in the employ of the Baltimore & Ohio and well known by railroaders. Relief trains were at once sent out.

SAVED BY STORM SIGNALS.

Thousands of Vessels Heed the Warnings of the Weather Bureau.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The agricultural department has issued a statement showing that during the storm of Sept. 24 to 29 1,089 vessels, valued at $17,100,000, and in the storm of Oct. 8 to 10 1,216 vessels, valued at $17,138,000, remained in port on the Atlantic and gulf coasts, secure from danger throughout the periods for which warnings were issued by the weather bureau. This makes a total of 2,305 vessels, valued at $36,238,000, a large proportion of which probably would have gone out but for the warnings. It is fair to assume, it is stated, that had they done so nearly all of them would have encountered the storms and been more or less damaged, if not lost. The records of those who went out in the face of the warning show that in every instance they suffered severe injury or were destroyed. Reports from the region traversed by the storm give the warnings credit for saving a number of lives; one station alone, Charleston, reporting over hundred lives probably saved by this means.

EXPLORATIONS AT BIFFER.

Human Race Shown to Have Existed 4,000 Years Before Christ.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The human race is nearly ten centuries older than science had knowledge of before as a result of the extensive explorations of the ruins of Biffer, near ancient Babylon, as described in a report to the state department by Minister Terrel at Constantinople. These explorations are being made at the expense of Philadelphia, and Dr. Peters and Prof. Hilprich of the University of Pennsylvania have supervised the work. Many tons of tables, vases, inscribed brick, sarcophagi and the like have been exhumed. The sensual and revolting worship of the god Bal is more clearly known, his colossal temple, with its 130 rooms, has been exposed and the religion, government and customs of men who lived 4,000 years before Christ have been revealed by the translated inscriptions.

Indiana Horticultural Society.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 8.—The annual meeting of the Indiana Horticultural society began yesterday with prominent fruit and flower growers from all parts of the state in attendance. Papers were read by W. H. Qagen of Greencastle, R. W. Warder, superintendent of city parks of Cincinnati; C. M. Hobbs of Bridgeport, Fielding Beeler of Indianapolis, J. Troop and J. C. Arthur of Lafayette, L. M. Underwood of Greencastle and G. W. Campbell of Bloomington. In connection with the convention there is a large exhibit of fruit at the state house.

All on Board Are Drowned.

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 8.—The schooner Annie M. Pride, Capt. James G. Pride, bound to Halifax from Mabou, C. B., was driven ashore near Herring Cove at the entrance to Halifax harbor yesterday and all on board perished. Fishermen watched the vessel from the cliffs as it drifted to its doom, but were powerless to save the crew. Besides a crew of four hands the captain's little son, 10 years old, and two female passengers were on board.

Steamer Badly Damaged.

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., Nov. 8.—The steamer Peerless, of the Lake Superior line, blew out the cylinder head of her engine yesterday forenoon while coming here from Chicago. The roof of her cabin was carried away and a large amount of damage was done. One of the crew narrowly escaped death from the flying timbers.

Held Up at His Own Door.

GALESBURG, Ill., Nov. 8.—Thomas Walters, a farmer living near Maquon, was called to his door last night by two burglars, who demanded his money. He refused to give it up, when one of the robbers shot him through the breast and fled. Walters is probably fatally hurt.

WHAT THEY WANT TO END THE WAR

JAPAN WILL DEMAND ISLE OF FORMOSA.

Japanese Attack Che Foo—Reports Say Battles Are Now Being Carried On Both on Land and Sea—General Foreign News.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The Telegraph says that Japan will demand as the terms of peace the cession to her of the island of Formosa and the payment of an indemnity of $200,000,000.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 8.—Foreigners who have arrived at Che Foo from Port Arthur say the Japanese are attacking the latter place by land and sea. A Chinese fleet lies inside the harbor.

TO REFORM LONDON BAKERIES.

Proposed Scheme of Citizens to Regulate Their Sanitary Condition.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—As a result of the recent investigation into the sanitary condition of the bakehouses of the metropolis, a committee of prominent citizens has submitted to the London county council a petition asking for a number of amendments to the public health act relating to baking establishments. The resolutions suggest that uniform metropolitan laws regulating bakeries be made by the London county council, and that the duty of enforcing these laws shall devolve upon the various local sanitary authorities; that such law shall govern the regulation of the conduct of the business, the structure of the premises and the mode in which application is to be made for sanction to establish new bakeries in the city of London; that if be rendered an offense to occupy as a bake house any cellar or place almost or altogether below the level of the street; that all metropolitan bake houses be regularly licensed and that the granting of the licenses be vested in the London county council. It is thought that the adoption of these measures would prove of untold benefit to the community, especially among the poorer classes.

DEMANDS OF AGRARIANS.

Chancellor Von Hohenlohe Asked to Raise Duties on Cattle.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—The Berlin correspondent of the Times says that in addition to the Agrarian league and the Prussian Agricultural association, the German Agricultural college has now petitioned Chancellor von Hohenlohe to raise the duties on American cattle and cereals and to undertake a reform in the sugar taxation. Influential members of the Agrarian league are making preparations to submit to the reichstag or the Prussian diet a measure to reorganize the trade in cereals and that the chancellor is being hard pressed and may be compelled to make slight concessions to the agrarians.

Reply to a Message of Sympathy and Loyalty From Nobles of Moscow.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 8.—The czar is showing great activity in answering the many telegrams of condolence and expressions of loyalty which he receives, and the impression prevails that he is trying to demonstrate the fact that he is courteous and genial, and that Russia is extremely loyal. Relying to a message of sympathy and loyalty from the nobles of Moscow, the czar said:

In union with you I shall find strength to fulfill the arduous duty which has devolved upon me so early and I shall devote all my power to the services of my dear country.

Cabinet Crisis in Argentina.

BUENOS AYRES, Nov. 8.—The minister of the interior and the minister of war have resigned.

FOUND TIED AND GAGGED.

Arkansas County Treasurer Held Up and the Safe Cleaned Out.

HARRISON, Ark., Nov. 8.—C. F. Aycock, county treasurer, was yesterday discovered lying on the floor of his office with his hands and feet tied, a pocket handkerchief stuffed into his mouth and another bound over his face.

As he was returning home about 9 o'clock the night before from Lead Hill he was intercepted by two men, who compelled him to return to the court house and open the safe, which they looted. But little money was in the vault, as the treasurer keeps the funds in the bank. Mr. Aycock was removed to his home, where he lies prostrated.

Horse Car Run Down.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 8.—At 9 o'clock yesterday an express train on the Reading road struck a street car at Nicetown, Pa. The car was thrown fifty feet from the track. George Conrad, aged 40, driver of the car, was seriously and perhaps fatally injured. William H. Hillburn, a passenger

UPHAM'S PLURALITY WILL REACH 60,000

ROCK COUNTY'S MAJORITY IS SECOND.

Milwaukee County Was the Only One that Gave Him a Large Plurality—3707 Is the Figure Made by the Last Canvass—The Full Returns.

Major Upham's plurality will be in the vicinity of 60,000, the returns in the state now footing up at 56,328. Rock county contributed 3,107 according to the latest canvass which is the

COOPER'S PLURALITY IS 8892.

This is a Gain for Him of Nearly Five Thousand.

Congressman Cooper's plurality, according to the returns now in is 8892, against 4013 two years ago. His pluralities in the various counties both years was as follows:

	1894.	1892.
1st District—Cooper, Kull, Cooper, Babbitt, Rep. Dem. Rep. Dem.
Green	500	205
Kenosha	350	240
La Fayette	350	65
Madison	2066	351
Rock	3107	1678
Walworth	2529	1716
Totals	8892	4013
Cooper's plurality, 8892; Cooper's plurality in 1892, 4013.

Not one democratic congressman was elected, the returns showing that even Barwig is defeated but by less than 300.

BIGGEST VOTE EVER CAST HERE.

The City Never Had So Many Ballots Put in the Box.

The vote cast in Janesville Tuesday was the largest ever cast, being for governor 2,796. This is nearly one thousand less than the number registered. The vote for sheriff was still larger being 2,806, not counting the scattering votes for the populist and prohibition, which is estimated at seventy-five or eighty votes.

TWO PARTIES ON THE SAME WAGON

Manager Sexton Couldn't Stand Populist Fusion With the Democrats.

One of the amusing incidents of the local campaign was witnessed on West Milwaukee street election day. The people's party was sent out with a wagon decorated with significant signs and mottos. The wagon was in charge of a small boy and following close behind was another youth, the standard bearer of the democratic party, carrying an immense banner inscribed:

"Hear E. M. Hyzer tonight." The procession stopped in front of the postoffice and the young scion of the vehicle said to his companion of the infantry force:

"Get in and ride Chimmie what's the use wadin' in the mud when you can ride for nothin'."

"Don't care if I do," said the young pedestrian, and he climbed in behind with the remark: "What's the difference, anyhow? These two blasted parties ought to have fused long ago."

The procession moved up the street, the people's party ahead and democracy in the rear and the fusion compact was harmonious until Mr. Sexton noticed the mix-up and suggested to democracy, that the party couldn't travel to glory on his wagon this year.

WAGON MERCHANT AT FOOTVILLE

Medicine and Groceries Sold With the Help of Music.

FOOTVILLE, Nov. 8.—Of late our village has been visited by men of roving dispositions, such as traveling grocery men, medicine men and the like who apparently go from place to place looking for a good location, and having found it, pitch their tent and proceed to business. In a short time they may have a fine string of suckers. In some cases they will have a game of chance, in which many of our professors of faith indulged freely.

Protracted meetings began at the church of Christ, on Saturday evening with Rev. B. Black of Chicago.

Meetings to begin each evening during the week at 7:30. The A. P. A. held a social Monday evening in Ogden hall.

The bog school house is receiving a fresh coat of paint. The rally at this place Saturday evening was largely attended. The men's social which was to have been held on Friday evening, was postponed on account of the rain.

W. A. Owen, who is in Chicago receiving medical treatment is improving. Our schools are again flourishing under the efficient skill of Lizzie Gillies and Hettie Dann.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Andrew Crain Thursday.

Gay Ellis, who has been spending a few days with friends in Whitewater, has again returned to this place.

He has been engaged as principal of the academy at Cookville this winter, which will begin December 3.

Our pastor, P. W. Peterson had twelve chickens disappear from the roost a few nights since. T. P. Wells had a narrow escape from being wrecked on Tuesday evening while on his way home from Orford.

A whist tree gave way. Frank Pepper is improving very slowly and Dr. S. W. Lacy thinks it will be some time before he will be out again.

William Ross' election is sure and he will oversee our school for the next two years.

A SWIFT CRAP GAME COST BLEILER $450

WEALTHY GREEN COUNTY FARMER SWINDLED.

That's Why the Sheriff of that County Came to Janesville On His Way to Racine—Half the Money Paid Back and the Matter Was Allowed to Drop.

It cost George Bleiler, a wealthy Monroe cheesemaker $450 to shoot craps and be friendly to Charles Harris. That is also the reason that Sheriff Peter Moore, the jolly representative of Green county law was in Janesville between trains on his way to Racine.

Bleiler followed Harris to Racine where the latter was held on a detention warrant, but as Harris had $250 in his pocket when arrested, Bleiler began talking about a settlement after he learned there was no sure thing of convicting Harris of receiving money under false pretenses.

Harris offered to give up the $250 if he was allowed his liberty and given the assurance that Bleiler would not again molest him. This was agreed to and the money turned over, Bleiler paying all the court and officer expenses.

Bleiler was tickled as a boy with his first pair of red top boots as he walked out of the justice's office with his pocket bulging out with green backs. He invited his new-made friends to a Main street resort where he began spending his money like a drunken sailor, insisting that the bartender should have two rows of drinks on the bar at the same time.

Shot Craps for High Stakes.

Bleiler says he first met Harris at the barroom of a hotel in Monroe where they shot craps together.

Harris was pretty smooth, but it was not the first time that Bleiler had rolled the bones and shouted "seven, come eleven." For several weeks they met nightly and shot craps, and as a result Bleiler was about $200 the best of the game.

It was then that Harris took him into his confidence and borrowed $445. Bleiler claimed that he did not care so much for the loss of the money, but the boys about town had grieved him.

He was satisfied now. Harris had a talk with him after he was released and promised that he would some day make good the loss, but Bleiler claimed that he was satisfied.

Bleiler has the appearance of a green county lad, but if he was picked up for that there would be a mistake. He has a farm of over three hundred acres and is a prosperous cheese maker of which that section of the state is noted. He is well provided with this world's goods.

We set the pace. We sell the goods. We save you money. We pay 100 cents on the dollar: never paid anything more.

A Few Facts.

For several months a certain shoe house in Janesville has seen fit to make reference to us in many of their advertisements as "The Other Shoe Firm in our Block," quoting prices not only on their own wares but fixing prices to suit their convenience, on our goods. We stand ready, if called upon, to at any time make affidavit, if necessary, that in every instance where they made comparison between their shoes "either as to style, price or quality," and our goods, they published falsehoods, not innocently, but with full knowledge of the incorrectness of their statements. For instance: The "7 Button Wonder," so called a wonder only from the fact that shoes costing but $1.75 a pair at wholesale, made in imitation of shoes worth $3.50 should be sold for $2.48 by people who would have you believe that they do business honestly. Shoes advertised for $3.50 costing but $2.50 a pair at wholesale, equal to their neighbors goods at $5.00. We are called upon to make these statements in justice to ourselves. Such profits as these would be highly satisfactory to any retailer. Marzluff & Co. are the home manufacturers referred to in their ads., and are the firm who makes these shoes. We publish these facts with their knowledge and consent. Marzluff & Co. will bear us out in our statement that these so unwisely advertised shoes are made by them and are the cheapest and lowest grades of shoes made by them. Such wilful misrepresentations as has been indulged in by the above referred to shoe house, reflect not only upon any dealer who handles the best goods made by Marzluff & Co., but grossly misrepresents the factory itself. BECKER & WOODRUFF.

MYSTERIES!

The Nervous System the Sea of Life and Mind. Wonderful Discoveries.

No mystery has ever compared with that of human life. It has been the leading subject of professional research and study in all ages. But notwithstanding this fact it is not generally known that the seat of life is located in the upper part of the spinal cord, near the base of the brain, and so sensitive that even the prick of a needle will cause instant death.

Recent discoveries have demonstrated that all the organs of the body are under the control of the nerve centers, located in or near the base of the brain, and that when these are deranged the organs which they supply with nerve fluid are also deranged. When it is remembered that a serious injury to the spinal cord will cause paralysis of the body below the injured point, because the nerve force is prevented by the injury from reaching the paralyzed portion, it will be understood how the derangement of the nerve centers will cause the derangement of the various organs which they supply with nerve force.

Two-thirds of chronic diseases are due to the imperfect action of the nerve centers at the base of the brain, not from a derangement primarily originating in the organ itself. The great mistake of physicians in treating these diseases is that they treat the organ rather than the nerve centers which are the cause of the trouble.
Dr. FRANKLIN MILES, the celebrated specialist, has profoundly studied this subject for over 20 years, and has made many important discoveries in connection with it, chief among them being the facts contained in the above statement, and that the ordinary methods of treatment are wrong. All headache, dizziness, dullness, confusion, pressure, blues, mania, melancholy, insanity, epilepsy, St. Vitus dance, etc., are nervous diseases no matter how caused. The wonderful success of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is due to the fact that it is based on the foregoing principle. Dr. Miles' RESTORATIVE NERVINE is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. ### OUR COUNTRY.

Cheering returns from all parts of the country continue to confirm the popular verdict of Tuesday. It is no longer a question of victory, but simply a question of majorities. Wisconsin sends a solid delegation to congress and several of the southern states contribute to the victorious party. This is one of the most gratifying results because it breaks up for time to come, the solid south, and banishes sectional lines.

The great fact of national importance, no north, no south, but one common country will be speedily realized, and out of the mist of sectional strife will dawn a better and brighter civilization.

The breaking up of party lines means more for the south, than appears at first sight. It opens the way for capital and northern enterprise, and places that section of the country in touch with national interests and national prosperity. The endowment of the south will be utilized and her corn and cotton fields will respond as never before, because of new enterprise and energy.

These conditions are just and will be universally recognized by intelligent people. Thirty years away from civil strife should bury in oblivion every trace of revenge and cover with a broad mantle of charity, the nation from center to circumference.

The spirit of loyalty manifested by the south during the troublesome times of last summer was of the sane type that characterized the law abiding element in all parts of the land and was generally recognized throughout the north and thoroughly appreciated. One flag, one country, one party for national prosperity, is the inscription on the banner of the great majority.

FREE TRADE.

If there was any question about the sentiment of the country on free trade, it is no longer debatable. If there are any democrats so obtuse as not to recognize this fact, they should emigrate to some free trade country without delay.

An effort was made by the democratic party to keep the tariff issue out of the campaign.

Local and state issues were made prominent and questions of moral reform has been constantly kept before the people, but the result everywhere shows that there was but one issue and one common purpose, and that was, to turn the party down and cut, because its national policy was detrimental to American prosperity.

The theories of free trade are very plausible, and the markets of the world seem very inviting, but like many theories it fades into thin air under the bright light of facts.

President Cleveland is a free trade theorist of the most pronounced type. His utterances on raw material, and the great benefit to be derived from tariff reform, are so imperative that the man of ordinary intelligence who toils, repudiates them and says by his ballot at the first opportunity "You are wrong, and the party you represent is unsafe to administer the affairs of government."

The issue of the campaign was the tariff, pure and simple, it will be the same in 1896. It is a national issue touching every neck and corner of the great commonwealth and important enough as it has, and will, to command the best thought and the most hearty support of a large majority of the voters of the country.

You can fool all the people occasionally, and some of them frequently but the majority are more practical than theoretical, because they have to do with the practical side of life.

Cheer up, fellows, and bear in mind the words of the Roman statesman—"The voice of the people is the voice of God."

General Harrison spoke with prophetic accuracy when in his great New York speech he likened the democratic party to grass hoppers, because you can never tell which way it will jump. The title, grass hoppers, should stick, it fits perfectly.

Boys, it is very wicked to bet on an election, and doubly so when you bet on the losing side.

Chairman Morris can now confine his attention to running the Clear Lake steamer.

Has any one heard what effect the returns had on General Doe's uniform?

"Hill and H—H—" is what they say President Cleveland said.

Thanks, thanks, don't mention it, the G. O. P. is all right.

Hurrah for Haviland & Company; they helped.

MINOR MENTION.

The experiment of using compressed air for street car propulsion has been tried in Massachusetts. The results were considered satisfactory.

Italians say that although good macaroni is made in this country it lacks some of the qualities that belong to the best imported macaroni. The latter is made of a coarser flour than ours, and when cooled it holds its form better, so that the cooling process may be continued longer. This results in giving the macaroni a somewhat more wholesome quality.

Always when visiting a sick person endeavor to sit where the invalid may see you without making an effort to do so. Under any circumstances it is always more satisfactory to see the person to whom one is talking, and nothing is more fatiguing to an invalid than to be obliged to twist into an uncomfortable position in order to see a visitor. The good effect of the most cheery talk will be nullified by the fatigue of the effort.

Irish Frieze Ulsters $10.

We have a lot of this season's make of nice long Irish frieze ulsters with wide collars, handsomely lined and made up, a regular storm coat, which we propose to sell during this great sale at $10 each. Not another clothing house in the city pays less than $12.50 each for the same kind of an ulster. We will also put in all our nice long cut $18 Pickwick overcoats at $10 each, this is also less than the other fellows pay. And some handsome double and single breasted $18 suits, the latest style, square and round corners for $10 a suit. A regular $10 sale is the way of it. We are selling close but not below cost. We have told you repeatedly that no clothing house in the city can buy within 15 to 25 per cent. as cheap as we do. They may lay claim to everything of that kind, but let them get down and compete with us. Every day until January 1 we propose to cut the prices, on nice new seasonable, reliable goods, not a thread came from any Dago sweat shops. You are safe in wearing our clothing as it is not moth eaten or diseased.

T. J. ZIEGLER.

A Whole Broadside.

By referring to the 7th page of this issue the readers of The Gazette will find a half page advertisement of ours, which is chuck full of bargains. We never hide our efforts under a half bushel, or do anything in a roundabout, vague way. Our goods are such as we are not afraid to name and describe. All new up-to-date dry goods bought for spot cash, and being sold for less than any house in the city dare make them. We keep nothing under cover, we are dividing our profits with every customer, and whenever we hear of any prices being made by another we cut them at once. See 7th page. BORT, BAILEY & CO.

Closing Out Clothing.

Boys' ulsters, sizes 14 to 19, $2.75.
Men's ulsters, $3.50.
Irish frieze ulsters, fancy wool lined, $10 kind, at $5.50.
Men's kersey overcoats, fine silk-lined, warranted all wool, made up in latest styles, $6.00.
Suits in proportion. See large ad tomorrow. We are closing out our entire stock of clothing.

THE BEE HIVE.

We Don't Talk Back; Taint Perilite.

We are too busy these days to quarrel. We are selling stacks of goods and haven't time to scrap. Of course we have to write to our customers and we would be much obliged to our competitors if they would mind their own business. We can't always talk pretty. BROWN BROS. & LINCOLN.

They Just Came To Town.

New mince meat; just received a barrel.
One barrel of new sauerkraut. T. y it.

One pound boxes fancy assorted lemon, citron and orange peel, sliced and ready for use; something new. DUNN BROS.

Greater New York Scheme Carried. NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The victory in favor of the Greater New York appears to be complete. The proposed greater New York covers an area of 3177.77 square miles, while the present New York has only 38.85 square miles. The new city takes in nearly all of Kings county, a portion of Westchester and Queens counties, and all of Richmond county.

Owens to Succeed Breckinridge. FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 8.—Both sides are claiming the election of the Ashland congressman, but on the face of returns Owens, democrat, has a plurality of 119. Denny, republican, will contest before the house, claiming gross frauds in Woodford and Henry counties.

Poor Tommy.

Bell—Why doesn't Tommy get married?

Nell (contemptuously)—Can't afford it.

"Well, he and his wife could live on 'bread and cheese and kisses,' couldn't they?"

"Yes, they might; but Tommy hasn't been able to find any girl who could provide the necessary bread and cheese, as yet."—Somerville Journal.

A Triumph.

"Ladies and gentlemen," said the professional hypnotist, as he introduced Wayside Rhodes to the assemblage. "I will now give you a remarkable illustration of hypnotic power. I will lend the subject here before you $5."

"That's no trick," said a voice.
"And, men," said the professor in the firm tones of assured triumph, "I will make him return the $5 to me."—Chicago Record.

The Fly in the Ointment.

Mrs. Dooley (whose husband is out of work)—Sure it's the continted woman you should be, Mrs. Mooney, wid yer husband wid a life job as night watchman at the warehouse.

Mrs. Mooney (excitedly)—Continted, is it? An' that warehouse full of open hatchways! An' him walks in his sleep!—Puck.

Constancy.

Three months ago we kissed and said
We'd love through life's whole span;
Three days ago she married Ted,
And I was their best man.
—N. Y. Herald.

MODEST ENCOURAGEMENT.

Miss Sereleaf—Why don't you get married, Mr. Slimpy?

Mr. Slimpy—I have no luck with the ladies.
Miss Sereleaf—But you need not despair; just try your luck with me.

Willing to Give Information.

Customer—I'm a stranger in your village. Can you tell me where I shall be likely to find the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table?"

Clerk (in country drug store)—Why—why, I don't think they keep it here, but they've got some first-rate mackerel at the store over there across the road.
—Chicago Tribune.

Only Inference Possible.

Mrs. Toplofty—It is my opinion that De Snoodle and his wife are quite middle class, if not really—aw—vulgar.
Toplofty—What makes you think so?
Mrs. Toplofty—Well, I heard both of them declare in the most barefaced manner that they loved each other.—Town Topics.

In the Nature of a Break.

He (pleadingly)—Why can't we be married right away?
She (coolly)—Oh! I can't bear to leave father just yet.

He (earnestly)—But, my darling, he has had you such a long, long time.

She (freezingly)—SIR!!!—Brooklyn Life.

Re-Enforcements Wanted.

Little Girl—Oh, mamma! Come quick!
Mamma—Mercy! What's the matter?

Little Girl—There's a mouse in the kitchen, and the poor cat is there all alone.—Good News.

Now He's Broke.

When he first saw his wife's little toque, He treated it much as a joke;
But his mirth it was staved
When the bill he had paid
By putting his homestead in stake.
—Detroit Tribune.

THE CITY WILL NOW SUE SIMON STRAUSS

INSURANCE AGENT HASN'T MADE TRUE RETURNS.

A State Law Compels All Companies to Pay Two Per Cent. of All Premiums on Policies Written In the City —General News From About the Town.

SIMON STRAUSS, the Orfordville insurance agent, is likely to be made a defendant in a somewhat complicated law suit which will be begun by the Janesville authorities, to compel him to pay to the city the required two per cent premium that is exacted from all insurance companies, on which he has made but partial returns.
Mr. Strauss writes a number of policies in Janesville, although his headquarters are in Orfordville. He is required to give a bond to the city that he will pay over the two per cent.
premium on the amount he receives on his fire insurance. Mr. Strauss, according to recent investigations, has failed to make true returns, and his bondsmen, Max Plenig of this city and O. S. Osgard of Orfordville, have been notified that legal proceedings are about to be commenced against him.

"The Prodigal Father" is said to be full of the liveliest situations and brilliant dialogues. The witticisms, the jokes and pleasantries set one into a roar of laughter. It is a masterpiece of comedy workmanship. There is not a dull moment in it. The company is said to be excellent. Many new and novel situations have been introduced including many lively songs, dances, specialties and medleys by the best vaudeville talent obtainable anywhere. The Prodigal will be presented at Myers Grand Friday evening, November 9.

REV. SABIN HALSEY pastor of the Court Street M. E. church was called to Milwaukee Tuesday, to perform a marriage ceremony. The contracting parties were Miss Clara May McDowell of Milwaukee, and William Bailey McCloud of Chicago. The ceremony was attended by twelve hundred people at Grand Avenue church, Tuesday evening.

THE next party to be given by the Hockey Pokey club will be November 30, the Friday evening following Thanksgiving. The club has also decided to celebrate their third anniversary, January 4, by giving the finest masquerade ball of the season. This announcement was to have been made at the dance Tuesday evening, but was accidentally omitted.

ONE hundred and eighty people visited our store yesterday and bought shoes. Many of them bought three and four pair. To today is a reputation of yesterday. If this business keeps up, we will not have to fail and try to make our stock pay 110 cents on the dollar. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

We had a perfect avalanche of trade yesterday. We are now more firmly convinced than ever that judicious advertising backed up by the best goods and sold at proper prices are what the people appreciate. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

Denied a Chance to Vote.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 8.—Nearly 900 laborers employed by the Detroit Gas company were denied a chance to vote by their employers. The superintendent claims the reason was solely because the lateness of the season demanded that the work be pushed.

LEAF MEN WRANGLE ABOUT THE STOCK

GROWERS ASSOCIATION MIXED IN FOR ANOTHER ROW.

When they Organized But One-Fifth of the Par Value of Stock Was Paid and Now Some Want It
All Paid and Others Do Not.

There's another row in the Rock County Tobacco Association, and some of the members caucused at the court house yesterday. Dr. Dudley of this city presided, and there were fifty or more members present. The association recently made a demand upon the stockholders for the payment in full of stock held. When the association was organized three years ago, only $2 was paid in on each share of $10.
Many of the members question the necessity of paying this additional sum. J. H. Haviland was present at the caucus and stated that the object was to arrive at some understanding before the annual meeting of the association.
There were 210 shares of stock paid for, and 130 not paid, he understood and he also understood that Mr.
Fisher held a large block of the stock, and he urged some action by which the stockholders could get control of things when the association met in annual session. Those who are not satisfied with the present management, he thought might give their proxies to some one if they could not be present themselves.

May Break the Association.
The fight may result in winding up the affairs of the corporation. The annual meeting of the stockholders will be held in this city next Wednesday to elect a board of directors.
The membership is composed largely of farmers and retired farmers, and the management from the first, three or four years ago, has not been wholly in harmony with the opinions of some of the stockholders who have not been directly in the managing ring, hence there has always been adverse criticism. J. H. Haviland, one of the leading retired farmers, occupied considerable time in giving his opinion how the association should be handled. He was very mild in his criticism of the management, but thought if the stockholders opposed to the present business ways, would consolidate on a ticket, they would succeed in making a change.

Feed the Money.
Now the managers claim the association is in debt and must have money. This idea is being severely criticized by many of the members, who think the association ought to be run without so much expense, and the money is not being paid. The opposition meeting yesterday, did not arrive at any particular understanding, there being too many present who would like to be in Manager Fisher's office.
But it was evident, however, that the $8 assessment will not be paid willingly, and that many will refuse until compelled by law to pay.

"The annual meeting called for next Wednesday" said one of the stockholders, "will probably be the last of the association."

One of the directors was seen this morning. He said the association started without money, on borrowed capital, and like every other association required money to run it. Furthermore, a good many members thought they could run the society without money, and perhaps they will be given the chance. The meeting will probably be held in the warehouse of the association at the corner of Wall and Academy streets.

TWO CASES OF SCARLET FEVER.

There are now two cases of scarlet fever in the city, one at the home of W. S. Jeffris on South Franklin street, and the other in a German family in Monterey. Both cases are said to be of a mild type.

FATHERS COLLECTS $73,446 TAXES.
Very Small Delinquent List Will Have To Be Sued.

City Treasurer Fathers has presented his petition to the circuit court for a judgment against numerous parcels of city real estate, the amount aggregating $73,446.52. The total amount of the tax levy placed in his hands October 1 for collection was $76,800.

which shows him to be an expert collector, his delinquent list being only $3,354.52.

"This sum is mostly against lands assessed to 'unknown' parties, some being in the new additions," he said.
"Besides such lands as I have mentioned, there are a number who allow their property to be sold in order to obtain tax titles, thus perfecting their own claims. I understand this is the smallest return made to the court in a long time."

NEW TEMPRANCE CLUB FORMED.
"Reading Cir" Was Organized and Officers Elected Last Night.

In answer to the call for the organization of the Temperance Reading Circle, a goodly number responded and became members. Officers were elected as follows:

President—E. P. Humphrey.
Vice President—Bertha Pitcher.
Secretary and Treasurer—F. O.
Humphrey.

The following persons were appointed as leaders: Temperance Physiology, Dr. Mary Lane; Alcohol in Science, Miss Reesig; Temperance Talks, Miss Nettie Harrington; Readers for the Story, Mrs. Brookhouse and Miss Effie Pollock, and news reporter, Miss Emma Hoskin.

The circle will meet every Monday night in the dental parlors of H. A.
Palmer, No. 5 West Milwaukee street.
A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present at all the meetings and join the circle.

J. C. WILMARTH'S CASE HOPEFUL.
Consultation of Physicians This Morning
Results in More Cheering Reports.

The many friends of James C. Wil-marth, editor of The Gazette, who has been confined to his bed at the Sut-terland Sanitarium for the past ten days, will be glad to learn that his case is now more hopeful. His condition has been so serious that Dr. J. A.
Jackson, of Madison, was called in consultation today, and after a thorough examination, it was decided that while his recovery will be slow it will be equally sure unless something unforeseen happens. He has been receiving the best of care, and typhoid fever, which was greatly feared, will not, it is thought, now develop.

Milton For Solitude.

Furniture and fixtures were removed from democratic headquarters this morning. Chairman Morris has hied himself to his home in Milton, and has not been heard from since.
Even the chairman's wide awake first lieutenant, Elmer Skelly, has not been seen around the headquarters since the first batch of returns were handed in. The party is so completely used up that they have no use for headquarters.

No Fake Sale Here.
There are all kinds of sales advertised among the clothing dealers at present; low tariff, high tariff, moth eaten, 40 per cent. added to the dollar, 30 per cent. added to the dollar, unloading sales, cracker jack sales, and in general all kinds of fake sales to deceive the public, but the only genuine overcoat and suit sale at wholesale cost is at Weisend's, and he is doing the clothing business of the city, as he does as he advertises, selling his suits and overcoats at wholesale cost until the entire stock is closed out. He wants to go out of the ready made clothing business as quick as possible. You can assist him by buying your suits and overcoats from him and save the retailer's profit.

Another Drop in Furniture.
We take no man's dust on the trade track. It is true that furniture is cheaper than ever before known in Janesville. But what is the use of our contemporaries kicking. We belong to no high priced trust. We buy and pay for our goods. We cut the prices, and we continue to cut. The bottom has not been reached; just wait until business gets a little quiet and we will cut everything in two. Watch us.

We are one-half a rotation to build for us a factory and not be under any obligations to anybody. Can't buy any more goods here you know. We to submit to the Business Men's Association. Also to get out a subscrip-

MRS. SMITH FREED FROM A MEAN MAN

DIVORCE GRANTED HER BY JUDGE BENNETT.

Alleged that Her Husband Treated Her
In a Cruel and Inhuman Manner—
Two Men Charged With Burglary—Isaac O'Clare Tired of Life In Jail.

J. A. FATHERS.

Mrs. Samantha E. Smith came all the way from Monroe this morning to testify before Judge Bennett on her petition for divorce from her husband, Leander Smith. It was a pitiful story she told of cruel and inhuman treatment. She testified that he frequently knocked her down, and on the very slightest provocation he maltreated her, by blows with his fist, and on many occasions had walked up to her and knocked her down. She had endeavored to be a true and faithful wife, but his barbarous treatment was more than she could stand. Her testimony was corroborated by her attorney, A. S. Douglas, and the divorce was granted.

The ugly charge of burglary was entered after the names of Thomas Brennan and Frank Burns on the records of the municipal court late yesterday afternoon. The two defendants are accused of burglarizing the Columbia Creamery Company's factory, in the town of Turtle, of six tubs of butter. Both entered a plea of not guilty and a hearing was set for November 12, the defendants being committed to jail in default of $500 bail.

A lesser, but not to be sneezed at offense was laid against Philip Jones, who was arraigned on the charge of the larceny of a gold-filled watch and a gold chain, the property of H. F. E.
Tracy of Milwaukee. He entered a plea of not guilty and the trial was set for November 9, the defendant being committed to jail because he couldn't furnish $100 bail.

Isaac O'Clare of Happy Hollow, who was fined eight dollars and cost, almost amounting to $21, for punching Christopher Christopherson, a neighbor, soon tired of jail life, and paid the penalty in cash. At first he elected to go to jail for fifteen days, rather than settle, but prison fare soon changed his ideas and he opened his wallet and exchanged cash for liberty.

DR. TALMAGE'S LATEST SERMON

DR. TALMAGE'S SERMON ON "VICTORY OVER PAIN."

Death the Only Conqueror of the Trials and Tribulations of the World—Rev. Dr. Talmage, Nov. 4.—Rev. Dr. Talmage, who is now nearing the close of his globe-circling tour and will shortly reach American shores, has selected as the subject of to-day's sermon through the press: "Victory Over Pain," the text chosen being Revelation 21:4, "Neither shall there be any more pain."

The first question that you ask when about to change your residence to any city is, "What is the health of the place?" Is it shaken of terrible disorders? What are the bills of mortality? What is the death rate? How high rises the thermometer? And am I not reasonable in asking, what are the sanitary conditions of the heavenly city into which we all hope to move? My text answers it by saying, "Neither shall there be any more pain."

First, I remark, there will be no pain or disappointment in heaven. If I could put the picture of what you anticipated of life when you began it, beside the picture of what you have realized, I would find a great difference. You have stumbled upon great disappointments. Perhaps you expected riches, and you have worked hard enough to gain them; you have planned and worried and persisted until your hands were worn and your brain was racked and your heart faint, and at the end of this long strife with misfortune you find that if you have not been positively defeated it has been a drawn battle. It is still tug and tussle—this year losing what you gained last, financial uncertainties pulling down faster than you build. For perhaps twenty or thirty years you have been running your craft straight into the teeth of the wind.

Perhaps you have domestic disappointment. Your children upon whose education you lavished your hard-earned dollars, have not turned out as you expected. Notwithstanding all your counsels and prayers and painstaking, they will not do right. Many a good father has had a bad boy. Absalom trod on David's heart. That mother never imagined all this as twenty or thirty years ago she sat by that child's cradle.

Your life has been a chapter of disappointments. But come with me, and I will show you a different scene. By God's grace, entering the other city you will never again have a blasted hope. The most jubilant of expectation will not reach the realization. Coming to the top of one hill of joy, there will be other heights rising up in the vision. This song of transport will but lift you to higher anthems; the sweetest choral but a prelude to more tremendous harmony; all things better than you had anticipated—the robe richer, the crown brighter, the temple grander, the throng mightier.

Further, I remark, there will be no pain or weariness. It may be many hours since you quit work, but many of you are unrested, some from overwork and some from dullness of trade, the latter more exhausting than the former. Your ankles ache, your spirits flag, you want rest. Are these wheels always to turn? these shuttles to fly? these axes to hew; these shovels to delve? these pens to fly? these books to be posted? these goods to be sold?

At the great holiday approaches. No more curse of taskmasters. No more stooping until the back aches. No more calculation until the brain is bewildered. No more pain. No more carpentry, for the mansions are all built. No more masonry, for the walls are all reared. No more diamond cutting, for the gems are all set. No more gold beating, for the crowns are all completed. No more agriculture, for the harvests are spontaneous.

Further, there will be no more pain of poverty. It is a hard thing to be really poor; to have your coat wear out and no money to get another; to have your flour barrel empty, and nothing to buy bread with for your children, to live in an unhealthy row, and no means to change your habitation; to have your child sick with some mysterious disease, and not be able to secure eminent medical ability; to have son or daughter begin the world, and you not have anything to help them in starting; with a mind capable of research and high contemplation, to be perpetually fixed on questions of mere livelihood.

To throw a romance about it? No; but there is no pity in it. Poverty is hard, cruel, unrelenting. But Lazarus walked up without his rags and his disease, and so all of Christ's poor wake up at last without any of their disadvantages; no almshouse, for they are all princes; no rents to pay, for the residence is gratuitous; no garments to buy, for the robes are divinely fashioned; no seats in church for poor folks, but equality among temple worshippers. No hovels, no hard crusts, no insufficient apparel. "They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sun light on them nor any heat." No more pain!

Further, there will be no pain of parting. All these associations must some time break up. We clasp hands and walk together, and talk and laugh and weep together; but we must after awhile separate. Your grave will be in one place, mine in another. We look each other full in the face for the last time. We will be sitting together some evening, or walking together some day, and nothing will be unusual in our appearance, or our conversation; but God knows that it is the last time, and that messengers from eternity, on their errand to take us away, know it is the last time; and in heaven, where they make ready for our departing spirits, they know it is the last time.

On the long agony of earthly separation! It is awful to stand in your nursery fighting death back from the couch of your child, and try to hold fast the little one, and see all the time that he is getting weaker, and the breath is shorter, and make outcry to God to help us, and to the doctors to save him, and see it is of no avail, and then to know that his spirit is gone, and that you have nothing left but the casket that held the jewel, and that in two or three days you must even put that away, and walk around about the house and find it desolate, sometimes feeling rebellious, and then to resolve to feel differently, and to resolve on self control, and just as you have come to what you think is perfect self control, to suddenly come upon some little coat, or picture, or shoe half worn out, and how all the floods of the soul burst in one wild wail of agony! Oh, my God, how hard it is to part, to close the eyes that never can look merry at our coming, to kiss the hand that will never again do us a kindness. I know religion gives great consolation at such an hour, and we ought to be comforted; but anyhow and anyway you make it, it is awful.

On steamboat wharf and at rail car window we may smile when we say farewell; but these good-byes at the death bed, they just take hold of the heart with iron pincers, and tear it out by the roots till all the fibers quiver and curl in the torture and drop thick blood. These separations are wine presses into which our hearts, like red clusters, are thrown, and then trouble turns the windlass round and round until we are utterly crushed, and have no more capacity to suffer, and we stop crying because we have wept all our tears.

On every street, at every doorstep, by every couch, there have been partings. But once past the heavenly portals, and you are through with such scenes forever. In that land there are many hand-claspings and embracings, but only in recognition. That great home circle never breaks. Once find your comrades there, and you have them forever. No crape floats from the door of that blissful residence. No cleft hillside where the dead sleep. All awake, wide awake and forever. No pushing out of emigrant ship for foreign shore. No tolling of bell as the funeral passes. Whole generations in glory. Hand to hand, heart to heart, joy to joy. No creeping up the limbs of the death chill, the feet cold until hot flannels can not warm them. No rattle of sepulchral gates. No parting, no pain.

Further, the heavenly city will have no pain of body. The race is pierced with sharp distresses. The surgeon's knife must cut. The dentist's pincers must pull. Pain is fought with pain. The world is a hospital. Scores of diseases like vultures contending for a carcass, struggle as to which shall have it. Our natures are infinitely susceptible to suffering. The eye, the foot, the hand, with immense capacity of anguish.

The little child meets at the entrance of life manifold diseases. You hear the shrill cry of infancy as the lancet strikes into the swollen gum. You see its head toss in consuming fevers that take more than half of them into the dust. Old age passes, dizzy, and weak, and short-breathed, and dim-sighted. On every northeast wind come down pleurisy and pneumonias. War lift, its sword and hacks away the life of whole generations. The hospitals of the earth groan into the ear of God their complaint. Asiatic cholera and ship fevers and typhoids and London plagues make the world's knees knock together.

Pain has gone through every street, and up every ladder, and down every shaft. It is on the wave, on the mast, on the beach. Wounds from clip of elephant's tusk, and adder's sting, and crocodile's tooth, and horse's hoof, and wheel's revolution. We gather up the infirmities of our parents and transmit to our children the inheritance augmented by our own sicknesses, and they add to them their own disorders, to pass the inheritance to other generations. In A. D. 263 the plague in Rome smote into the dust 5,000 citizens daily. In 544, in Constantinople, 1,000 grave diggers were not enough to bury the dead. In 1813, ophthalmia seized the whole Prussian army. At times the earth has sweltered with suffering.

Go through and examine the lacerations, the gunshot fractures, the sabre wounds, the gashes of the battle axe, the slain of bombshell and exploded mine and falling wall and those destroyed under the gun carriage and the hoof of the cavalry horse, the burning thirsts, the camp fevers, the frosts that shivered, the tropical suns that smote. Add it up, gather it into one line, compress it into one word, spell it in one syllable, clank it in one chain, pour it out in one groan, distill it into one tear.

Alas, the world has writhed in six thousand years of suffering. Why doubt the possibility of a future world of suffering when we see the tortures that have been inflicted in this? A deserter from Sebastopol coming over to the army of the allies pointed back to the fortress and said: "That place is a perfect hell."

Our lexicographers, aware of the immense necessity of having lots of words to express the different shades of trouble, have strewn over their pages such words as "annoyance," "distress," "grief," "bitterness," "headache," "misery," "twinge," "pang," "torture," "affliction," "anguish," "tribulations," "wretchedness," "woe." But I have a glad sound for every hospital, for every sick room, for every life long invalid, for every broken heart. "There shall be no more pain." Thank God! Thank God!

No malarial float in the air. No bruised foot treads that street. No weary arm. No painful respiration.

We Pay $10 Each for Ideas

We need TWENTY or MORE original and striking designs for Newspaper Advertisements of SAINT CLAUS SOAP. The manufacturer, J. K. Fairbank Company, will pay TEN DOLLARS EACH for approved drawings with appropriate reading; or $5.00 each for designs or reading matter only. This offer is open to all. The competition will close December 1. As soon as possible after that date we will pay for accepted designs and return the others. Remember, for complete, acceptable advertisements we pay

Directions.—Make drawings with black ink on heavy white paper, or card board. Do the work in outline. Elaborate shading will not print well. Space in papers will be four inches square. Draw to larger scale if you prefer, but have design square. The idea is most important. If that is good we can have it redrawn and still give you credit. Avoid poetry. Get up an ad. that would make you buy the article.

Points.—Santa Claus is a pure, high-grade soap—made for laundry and general household use—a favorite wherever known. Merits generous praise. Sold by all grocers, wholesale and retail.

HOW THE PUBLIC IS IMPOSED UPON.

BEWARE OF FRAUDS.

For The Sake of Profit They Will Sacrifice Principle, Health, Etc.

Unscrupulous dealers are trying to sell ordinary Glauber Salt or a mixture of Soda-liz Powder as "Artificial Carlsbad Salt," "Sprudel Salt," "German Salt" or "Improved Carlsbad Salt," and under other similar names. The Natural Remedies of Carlsbad can not be imitated.

"What Nature makes, man can not improve upon." Artificial made wines will never replace the natural juice of the grapes. Neither can the natural waters of Carlsbad nor the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt be replaced by the cheap substitutes offered to a gullible public for the sake of the larger profit made thereon, by these unscrupulous dealers.

No one would buy artificial wines knowingly. Why buy the imitation of the Carlsbad products, when your health is at stake? The Carlsbad Sprudel Waters are a specific for all diseases of the stomach, liver and kidneys, and have been used with great benefit by hundreds of thousands of people. The Carlsbad Sprudel Salt, which is evaporated from the Sprudel Water at Carlsbad, is an excellent aperient, laxative and diuretic; it is an alternative and eliminative remedy, which dissolves tenacious bile, allays irritation, and removes obstruction by aiding nature, and not by sudden and excessive irritation, as most cathartics do. Use the imported Carlsbad waters, or if it is not convenient to use the waters, or when a more decided laxative effect is desired, use the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt.

Insist upon the genuine, which is imported direct from Carlsbad, and must have the signature of Eisner & Mendelson Co., Sole Agents for the U. S., 132 & 154 Franklin St., New York, on every bottle.

A Whole Broadside of Bargains!

WE WANT OUR FRIENDS TO KEEP THIS IN MIND. We are leading the Dry Goods business with the lowest prices and the best bargains and the most determined efforts to beat all prices made. We will not dodge on prices. We will not hide our efforts in a vague uncertain manner, and juggle our prices and cover up our meaning so that you cannot tell whether you are getting bargains or not. But we will come right out squarely every time and let unequivocal figures tell our story. In order to clean up a pile of stuff before we move we will place on sale a whole broadside of Bargains.

100 pieces 50c and 60c Dress Goods, including serges, henriettas, flannels, homespuns, novelties. All to go at

25c per yard.

No competition does this for you.

20 pieces heavy Twilled Wool Suitings, 54 inch. You have thought them great at $1.00,

Only 50c.

We beat all hidden prices

75 pieces 46 in. All wool Henrietta, genuine Arnold goods, the best made; regular price $1. All go at

50c per yard.

What do you thing about this?

40 pieces 54-inch Broadcloth, all the new and beautiful shades, navy brown, tan, green, black. Sold always at $1.00,

67½c.

We dare to quote the prices.

20 pcs., 36-in. half wool Henrietta, worth from 25c to 30c per yard. All go at one price,

17c per yd.

You've bought these goods at higher prices.

100 pcs. of Outing Flannel, 'visions of loveliness, sold by (keep the price shady people) at 5c or 6c or 7c, we cut down to

3c per yd.

Do you think we mean business?

30 pcs. 54 in. all wool ladies' Flannels, always sold everywhere at 75c, (sold in mark down sales at 60c) our price.

45c.

50 pcs. of Selicia to line these dress goods, at

10c per yd.

Don't pay these other men 12 1-2c or 15c but buy your linings when you buy your dress.

CARPETS.

There is no uncertain ring to these figures. Under all conditions of trade we will come out fair and square with our price. No juggling, no dodging, no uncertainty here.

From now on and always we shall sell DRY GOODS CHEAPEST.

Lowell Ingrain Carpets, 45c
Best five Frame Body Brussels (worth $1.25) 67½c
Moquette Carpets (worth $1.25) at 87½c

You have started to trade with us. We will take care of you. We will always sell you the cheapest.

WHY ARE WE MAKING SUCH LOW FIGURES?

Because we own our own entire stock lower than any other merchant in this city and can afford to do it. The great bulk of our stock has been bought within the past few months, for cash, and bought cheap. We are in position to sell dry goods cheaper than any merchant who is lumbered with piles of goods bought at higher prices in times when goods were high. We want to double our business and the way we propose to do it is to always make our prices lower than any other firm. Come to us, we never dodge. We never juggle our prices and cover up our meaning. We want you to go with us when we move

DR. TALMAGE'S LATEST SERMON.

No heroic flush. No one can drink of that healthy fountain and keep faint hearted or faint headed. He whose foot touches that pavement becometh an athlete. The first kiss of that summer air will take the wrinkles from the old man's cheek. Amid the multitude of songsters, not one diseased throat. The first flash of the throne will scatter the darkness of those who were born blind. See, the lame man leaps as a hart, and the dumb sing. From that bath of infinite delight we shall step forth, our weariness forgotten. Who are those radiant ones? Why, that one had his jaw shot off at Fredericksburg; that one lost his eyes in a powder blast; that one had his back broken by a fall from the ship's balyards; that one died of gangrene in the hospital. No more pain. Sure enough, here is Robert Hall, who never before saw a well day, and Edward Payson, whose body was ever torn of distress, and Richard Baxter, who passed through untold physical torture. All well. No more pain. Here, too, are the Theban legion, a great host of 6,666 put to the sword for Christ's sake. No distortion on their countenances. No fires to hurt them, or floods to drown them, or racks to tear them. All well. Here are the Scotch Covenanters, none to hunt them now. The dark cave and imprecations of Lord Claverhouse exchanged for temple service, and the presence of him who helped Hugh Latimer out of the fire. All well. No more pain.

I set open the door of heaven until these blows on you this refreshing breeze. The fountains of God have made it cool, and the gardens have made it sweet. I do not know that Solomon ever heard on a hot day, the ice click in an ice pitcher, but he wrote as he did when he said, "As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country." Clambering among the Green mountains I was tired and hot and thirsty and I shall not forget how refreshing it was when, after a while I heard the mountain brook tumbling over the rocks. I had no cup, no chalice, so I got down on my knees and face to drink. Oh, ye climbers on the journey, with cut feet and parched tongues and fevered temples, listen to the rumbling of sapphire brooks, amid flowered banks, over golden shelvings. Listen! "The Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall lead them unto living fountains of water." I do not offer it to you in a chalice. To take this you must bend. Get down on your knees and on your face, and drink out of the great fountain of God's consolation. "And lo! I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters."

WAS A SWELL FOR A TIME.

How Clarence Wilmont, Conquered Montreal Society and Won a Bet.

The sequel to the story of Clarence E. Wilmont's escapades a few weeks ago is as interesting as the original story, says a Toronto exchange. He gave out that he was a millionaire and that he was going to marry a young lady in Three Rivers. He spent money lavishly, chartered a steamboat for a wedding excursion and invited several hundred of the most prominent people in Montreal. In turn he was feted by several young "bloodes" and introduced to the exclusive circles of the St. James club. He disappeared on the eve of the marriage and nothing more was heard of him. The sequel came out the other day, and those who entertained him feel badly sold. It appears that a year ago Wilmont was a news agent on the Richelieu and Ontario boats between Montreal and Quebec. He saved a few hundred dollars, and when winter came he secured a similar position on the Canadian Atlantic between Coteau and Ottawa. His economical habits followed him, and in the spring he was in possession of nearly $1,000. Some lucky strokes at the Woodbine races in Toronto more than doubled this sum. While celebrating his turf victories in a Toronto barroom he made the remark that the time had come when he could take his place among the Montreal 400. The remark was greeted with laughter, but Wilmont offered to bet $3,000 that inside of three months he would have Montreal society inviting him out; that he would invite them out; that they would accept his invitations; that merchants would be ready to give him hundreds of dollars of credit, and that the whole thing would cost less than $4,000. The bet was accepted, the money was put up, and Wilmont succeeded in winning the purse at a cost, according to himself, of $3,100. He has gone back to his original business, and can be seen any day selling books, cigars, etc., on the trains between Sarnia and Toronto.—Ex.

Thirteen Children Too Much.

Harrison Smith of Augusta, Ga., was a humble citizen of that city before there was an increase; now he is dead. Tuesday night Harrison Smith was the father of eleven children. He was happy. There was but a single cloud upon the horizon of his future, but he was not worried. That morning his wife presented him with twins. Without a word Smith walked into his room, took up a pistol and shot himself through the heart. It is claimed by his friends he was a man of great superstition, and when the fact that he was the father of thirteen children was thrust upon him it was too much.

Same as 2,000 Years Ago.

The fish hooks used to-day are of precisely the same shape as those employed twenty centuries ago. The only difference is in the material. Then they were bronze; now they are of steel.

Godthere in Purgatory.

As a curious instance of the association of it is stated that there is a post-office in Virginia called Purgatory, over which George Godthere presides as postmaster.

POISONED BLOOD

Is a source of much suffering. The system should be thoroughly cleansed of all impurities, and the blood kept in a healthy condition. S. S. S. removes Chronic Sores, Ulcers, etc., purifies the blood, and builds up the general health. It is without equal.

Ira F. Stiles of Palmer, Kan., says: "My foot and leg to my knee was a running sore for two years, and physicians said it could not be cured. After taking fifteen small bottles of S. S. S. there is not a sore on my limbs, and I have a new lease on life. I am seventy-seven years old, and have had my age renewed at least twenty years by the use of S. S. S."

talk, perhaps it would be just as well not to talk much.

Those who have not been tried and tempted much have little sympathy for those who have.

The richest man is not the one who has the most, but the one who can be happy with the least.

It is a recognized rule of manners to avoid exaggeration. A lady loses as soon as she admires too easily and too much; a man makes his inferiors his superiors by heat.

YOUNG SPIRITS,

a vigorous body and robust strength, follow good health. But all fail when the vital powers are weakened. Nervous debility and loss of manly power result from bad habits, contracted by the young through ignorance of their ruinous consequences. Low spirits, melancholia, impaired memory, morose, or irritable temper, fear of impending calamity and a thousand and one derangements of body and mind, result from such pernicious practices. All these are permanently cured by improved methods of treatment without the patient leaving home.

A medical treatise written in plain but choice language, treating of the nature, symptoms and curability of such diseases, sent securely sealed in a plain envelope, on receipt of this notice, with 10 cents in stamps, for postage. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

THIS.

FRANK D. KIMBALL.

We have been advertising lamps, decorated ones, for from 15 to 50 cents for more than a month. We have sold a lot of them, and to make them move still faster we will cut the price to 10 to 45 cents and if any competitor dares meet it we will cut still lower. We propose to lead all the time, and set the pace in our line.

Just Received - -

A crate of Catherine Mermet Ware, Gold Handles and Gold Lines, Genuine Electric Blue, Eclipse Shape, Imported, something entirely new. Will not last long.

Very Cheap

We have also a few sets of Genuine Imported Ware, very handsome---100-piece sets or in pieces to suit purchaser $10<sup>00</sup>
A Set.
